THE REGIONALOGUE

*Jonathan Dayton Regional High School
Springfield, New Jersey*

WE HONOR

Miss Alice Lyman

Our class adviser for four years—keeping after us to make our class events successful—guiding our way over frivolous matters, making us see the more important goals—a ready smile through thick and thin—willing to hear our troubles and woes—consoler and adviser to each and all, to her we proudly dedicate our 1950 Regionalogue.

Dick gets individual attention.

Time tests in typing class, remember?

Our Principal Speaks . . .

During high school years and, in many cases for years afterward, young people are engaged in the process of finding themselves. What you are, what you wish to be, and what you may become are all-important problems to you. To aid you in coping successfully with the problems which life brings, it is essential to keep in mind certain fundamentals. These fundamentals, when fully understood, can aid you in keeping life's ship on its course, can pilot it successfully through the storms it is bound to meet and can direct it back into the channel when it goes astray.

Finding yourself means knowing your interests, your aptitudes, your strong points, and your weaknesses. To find yourself it is necessary to learn what life in its various forms of activity requires. Then mold, bend, and shape yourself to meet the requirements for the goal you have in mind. Make the most of your strong points and correct your faults or shortcomings. "Know Thyself" is an old adage which age has not robbed of its truth, so to find yourself you must really know yourself.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE

BRANDER

Uncle Stanley and Rena (Chandler and June) celebrate.

Newton's love of his old farm house — Annabelle's aversion for it — Uncle Stanley's Corona-Corona's—that bratty little nephew—the neighbor without a good-neighbor policy — leaky roofs, tons of gravel and manure—summer theatre people wrecking the hometown complacency—mortgages to be paid—even George himself had less problems or was it Benedict Arnold? — a top performance made this a memorable evening at our R.H.S. play-house.

Shirley explains to Dick about the rights to the property.

And we all shed a tear with Marty and Ginny.

Senior Play

The love interest —
Don and Edie.

Mr. Kimber (Jim that is) surveys the world from his wheel barrow.

The backstage rush after the play—congratulations are in store.

BASKETBALL

Two losses in two tries! Off to a bad start—some thought. In no time at all this squad was hitting big time with a winning streak of 14 games, competing nicely with other top-notch Union County teams. With a fairly good percentage of veteran players (although mostly undergrads) we picked up during the season some hidden talent of varsity quality. High scorer Belliveau, trailing close behind —Smith and Murray, Murray's outstanding ability as one of the best high school players, fine guarding of Fischer, Gonczlik and Koonz made this 1950 team one of the school's best. In fact, one of the State's best— trophy, and all, we're the 1950 Group III State Champs.

Where did it go?

And little Jack Murray takes over.

WRESTLING Takes Over

In the life of every athletic team some season must be set aside to be used for building up. There can be no honors or glory during such a year.

The veterans with experience graduate and the novices have to be trained. 1950 was that kind of year for the wrestling team. Losing eight out of ten regulars on the varsity last year, the season began with the training of a new crop of grapplers, especially among the Freshmen. Vic Cipolletti, Tom and Ed Robe, Ronald Scorese, Norman Soucek, Ed MaSaites, Art Larson and Ted Mundy were the rookies on this year's varsity. The best record of the season was made by Art Larson. He won 6 out of 7 matches, losing only to D'Amica, the state champion. It is hoped that a few more boys on the team compile as good a record in 1951 as Artie did in 1950.

Oh, Ray! That Hurts!

With Spring . . . TRACK

Regional's track team guided by Coaches Ruby and Boutot enjoyed an overall successful season this year. The team was highlighted by the brilliant work of Warren Ousterman, and Bob Zeigenfuss, Carl Tonneson and Tony Grant. A selected group of boys also participated in the county and state meets. During the season a few school records were beaten or tied. Among these was the high jump of 5' 11" by Ousterman, which tied a former Regional record.

A Game for

Senior Hockey Squad

When these girls start swinging their sticks — Look out! Our girls have really gone out for hockey in a big way this year. The senior team entered competition with various other schools; Irvington, Clifford Scott, Hillside, Cranford, and East Orange. Mrs. Glander also sent a senior forward line to the All-State Hockey Tournament.

Watch out for your shins.

The bone-crushing Sophomores.

Every Girl

First row: E. Melni, B. Patton, B. Adams, A. Hustis, J. Christian. Second row: B. Nanz, J. Fontenelli, I. Olear, P. Donahue, J. Mallozzi. Third row: B. Murphy, E. Nanz, J. Mayes, J. Anderson, G. Weber.

Senior Basketball team.

Basketball proved to be the most popular sport for girls this year. We've had instruction in zone defense, foul shots, and set shots. Just to show the eagerness the teams have shown, practice hours are before school and quite a mob gets into the fun.

Gwen gets two points!

First row: D. Rutscher, J. Klem, M. Huber, N. Van Tuighe, J. Walsh, C. Boyton, B. Wherle, C. Reichard, H. Dempsey, M. Chester. Second: C. Werle, J. Rapp, D. Seal, S. Reinhardt, N. Wolie, A. Undergrad basketball squad.

Roh, roh roy, ray!

CHEERLEADERS

R-e-g-i-o-n-a-l

—How often have we heard the cheer ringing through Regional's halls! Our peppy cheerleaders are always on the go at pep rallies and games, cheering the team to victory. The squad practices all year round—they're good, that's why competition is so strong for new members. They've got a certain smoothness and grace of motion not seen in other squads.

Regional's precision Rockettes.

First row: J. Cosgrove, M. Pepe, J. Smith, J. Selonder, M. Detrick. Second row: A. Hustis, E. Scheffler, B. Potton, B. Wherle, M. Binder, M. Prohm, E. Fuehrer.

As you go into the future . . . men and women of tomorrow . . . remember that the world looks to you . . .
the young people of America . . . for leadership. Be fair, be just, and act wisely. Hold fast to your ideals. Live your life the best that is in you. In doing this, you will be contributing your part toward a better life, a better country, and a better world for everyone.
